Description

The premises comprise a modern single storey industrial/warehouse facility which has been split (on a leasehold basis) though previously was in single occupation. The main building is a modern steel portal framed single storey industrial/warehouse unit being reconstituted stone and blockwork built with metal deck cladding under a pitched metal deck clad roof incorporating perspex roof lights. The original main building has been extended and the premises benefit from a solid concrete ground floor with part let and the remainder providing up to 1,394m² (15,000 sq ft).

In addition, to the rear of the main building there is a brick built single storey industrial/warehouse building being part timber metal clad under a 'belfast roof' which is supported on large timber trusses with perspex roof lights and has recently been re-clad. This building also benefits from a concrete floor and is let.

Externally the premises are accessed via a shared yard of Thornhill Beck Lane which provides vehicle parking, good on site circulation and loading facilities (to both buildings).
