Location

The former Dixon Hall premises are situated in a high-profile position on the junction of Grafton Street with the main A652 Bradford Road only a short distance from Batley town centre and approximately 2 miles north west of Dewsbury. The A652 Bradford Road links Dewsbury with Bradford, via Birstall, and allows access to the majority of main arterial routes serving the North Kirklees/heavy woollen district.

'Batley's Golden Mile,' continues to have significant pub/leisure operators although the former Batley Variety Club/Frontier is now occupied by JD Gyms with a new Starbucks drive thru adjacent and immediately opposite Grafton Street. The property is also relatively close to Redbrick Mill with occupiers including Heal's.

The A652 Bradford Road connects with the A62 Leeds Road less than 2 miles to the north and provides direct access to J25 and J27 of the M62 (at Brighouse and Birstall respectively). These junctions of the M62, along with J26 at Cleckheaton, are within a 7 mile radius and J40 of the M1 is within 10 miles.

Description

Unitech House comprise a series of interconnecting mainly single storey brick industrial/warehouse buildings under part north light part pitched roofs and has been occupied for many years by Dixon Hall. The premises have been recently acquired and the new owners are to occupy the rear section with their trading company.

The surplus space comprises the industrial/storage space, including former showroom/trade counter on the junction of Grafton Street with Bradford Road.

Loading to the surplus space is via the two loading doors on Grafton Street although the premises do benefit from a large central yard with which could provide some off shared street parking.
